Uncle Vanya by Anton Chekhov, translated by Julius West

Uncle Vanya (subtitled "Scenes From Country Life") is a tragicomedy by Anton Chekhov. It is set on the failing country estate of a retired professor, Serebrakoff, who returns after a long absence with his beautiful young wife, and throws the household into confusion. Rivalry, unrequited love, illicit romance, and attempted suicide are the result, punctuated throughout by Chekhov's sad, wistful humor.
